

2010 TTRAG Symposium Schedule (tentative)

Friday, May 21st

1:00 – 4:30 PM: Tours of buildings in the historic Stockade district, Schenectady, NY

4:00 PM: Conference registration opens in Grand Ballroom Foyer, Holiday Inn, Schenectady

5:30 – 7:00 PM: Dinner in Ballroom

Evening presentations in Ballroom

7:00-7:45 PM: Lisa Sasser: Why Preservation Matters

7:45-8:30 PM: John Stevens: Dutch Vernacular Architecture in North America

8:30-9:30 PM: Walt Wheeler: Of a Compound Character: Framing Strategies Utilized by Late-Period New World Dutch Carpenters, 1770-1880

9:30-10:30 PM: Jan Lewandoski: Fruit barns and other framing on the Champlain Islands.

Saturday, May 22nd

6:30-8:00 AM: Breakfast (see confirmation letter for options)

Rendezvous at Mabee Farm, Rotterdam Junction, NY (see map)

8:30 AM-Noon: Demonstrations and Presentations at Mabee Farm:

- Harvey Alexander, campfire beer making & tasting
- Olaf Janson, tinsmith
- John Ackner, blacksmith
- Win Bigelow, carpenter
- Ward Hamilton, building restoration, lime mortar/plaster, roofing
- Possible rope maker & broom maker
- Kim Mabee, Frank Taormina & Ned Pratt: Dutch Barns

Noon-1:00 PM: Box lunch

1:00-4:00 PM: Bus tour

5:30-7:00 PM: Dinner in Ballroom back at Holiday Inn

7:30-10:00 PM: Slide Show in Ballroom

Sunday, May 23rd

6:30-8:00 AM: Breakfast (see confirmation letter for options)

Morning presentations in Ballroom

8:30-9:30 AM: Alex Greenwood: The Dutch Framing Tradition Applied to Wagonhouses and Other Farm Buildings

9:30-10:30 AM: Jack Sobon: Working by Hand – A Course for the Future

10:30-11:00 AM: Morning Break

11:00-noon: Don Carpentier: The Evolution of a Craftsman

Noon: Lunch

Symposium ends